Platform and Interview Prompts

Each participant should bring their unique perspective and personality to the competition. The contestant's application and essay will become the basis for each participant's interview questions during the Judge's Interview. Additionally, each applicant will answer an on-stage question directed from the judges.

The contestant's score sheet will include an evaluation of poise/presentation, Judge's interview, an essay on the applicant's community service involvement and on-stage question will be the 4 criteria in determining the contest winners.

Scholarship Information

The overall winner of the pageant will receive a $3,000 scholarship and the two runner-ups will each receive a $1,000 scholarship.

A ceremonial presentation will be made at the Holiday at Home Gala where the Court will be officially presented the weekend of the Holiday at Home Festival.

Scholarship checks will be written out to the college/university or trade school where the awardee is an enrolled student at the beginning of the student's first Fall semester following the pageant. If the student is currently enrolled as a college student, a check will be sent to the school following the Holiday at Home Festival.

Essay Prompt on Community Service

Using a separate sheet, in 1,200 words or less, tell the committee about the most fulfilling community service activity you have participated in to benefit your community and how it changed you as a person. The contestant will need to type the essay and attach it to the application.

Return this application and photos along with your $30 entry fee (make checks payable to Kettering Holiday at Home Foundation) to:

Holiday at Home Pageant: Code of Conduct (2019)

Competing for and holding the title of Holiday at Home Mr. or Miss is both an honor and a responsibility. As the Holiday at Home Mr. or Miss, you are the face and symbol of the Kettering Holiday at Home Foundation. As such, the organization expects the Holiday at Home Pageant contestants and titleholder to comply with the following code of conduct:

- i. Contestant or contestant's immediate family member must be a resident of the cities of Beavercreek, Bellbrook, Centerville, Kettering, Miamisburg, Moraine, Oakwood, Springboro, or West Carrollton, or the townships of Beavercreek, Miami, Sugarcreek or Washington.
- ii. Contestant must be 17 to 21 years old on the day of the Judges Interview (July 10th, 2019).
- iii. Both male and female contestants are welcome to apply. The top finalists, depending on the gender of the candidate, will either be named Holiday at Home Mr. or Miss to preside over the weekend of festivities.
- iv. The Holiday at Home Foundation sponsors both the Holiday at Home Pageant and a Community Scholarship Program. Contestants may only apply for one of the two contests in the same year.
- v. Contestant cannot have been an award recipient for the Holiday at Home competition in the past.
- vi. Contestants and/or titleholder must follow the directions of the Pageant Chairperson(s).
- vii. Contestants and/or titleholder will not participate in harmful, malicious, inflammatory, defaming or slanderous speech or gossip towards the Kettering Holiday at Home Foundation, its contestants, volunteers, judges, and/or sponsors, whether it be oral, written, or otherwise conveyed during competition or reign.
- viii. Contestants and/or titleholder must remember that their social networking site(s) (i.e. Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, YouTube, Snapchat, etc.) page content, as well as any other internet website(s) or web page(s), is considered a reflection on them as a contestant and/or titleholder and the Kettering Holiday at Home Foundation.
- ix. Titleholder must maintain high moral standards such that no public display of inebriation, smoking, indecent exposure of any sort, and no felony may be committed at any time during competition or reign.
- x. Titleholder is encouraged to attend all designated activities scheduled by the Kettering Holiday at Home Foundation as well as all scheduled events planned Labor Day Weekend as set forth by the planning committee (please see Calendar of Events).

I have read, understood and agree to abide by the Code of Conduct as stated on this document. This will be enforced while I am competing in this competition. If selected as a Titleholder, these rules and guidelines will remain in effect throughout my reign.
