

Thank you for your interest in our 65+ year tradition. Kettering Holiday at Home is more than just a Labor Day gathering; it is the coming together of neighbors in a celebration of community pride and spirit with the help of music, crafts and entertainment. You don't have to live here to attend...this is your invitation to food, folks and fun! Held in the spacious setting of pedestrian friendly Lincoln Park Civic Commons, the Arts & Crafts show is the most anticipated attraction for the majority of people attending Holiday at Home. But, that isn't all that brings people out to this annual event. Holiday at Home offers live music, food for all tastes, a comprehensive children's activity area, classic cars and many more activities to see and do. If you wish to join the family of vendors who regularly attend our show, please review the following guidelines we have instituted to make your experience enjoyable and profitable.

Acceptance is based on quality and originality of work, compliance with show requests and the requirements of exhibitor cooperation. Applicants must submit a minimum of three (3) recent photographs of the merchandise you intend to sell. Only items that are shown in the photos will be judged for acceptance, items without prior acceptance will be refused for display or sale. All previous vendors with photos on file will be judged on previously received material unless properly updated with the chairperson of Arts & Crafts before the filing deadline. Please identify all photographs on the back with the business name and contact information.

Artists may share booth space with another artist. However, a minimum of three (3) recent photographs must be submitted for each artist. Work will be accepted or rejected according to the total represented media.
